“

The economy is very bad. It's hard. I heard about the mobile pantry from my son's school, and we've been coming here for about a year. I want to provide a better future for my kids, so the help means a lot to us.

My family visits the mobile food pantry because, as a mom of three, food stamps are not enough to feed everyone. It makes a huge difference – especially with two teenage boys. One day, I hope we won't need the help and can give back to other people.

My family is going through a tough time getting enough to eat. I don't make enough money, and there are lots of bills coming in. Sometimes, people don't realize how much a little extra food means to people in need. It helps a lot.
