Capping impactful year for All Faiths Food Bank

As we approach the holiday season and the end of my first year as president and CEO of All Faiths Food Bank, I feel deeply grateful to be part of such a compassionate and caring community.

To our board of directors, dedicated staff and volunteers, agency partners and generous donors — thank you. Your support has made an incredible impact on countless lives.

Together, we shared nearly 22 million pounds of food over the past year, helping our neighbors when they needed it most.

With some board members completing their terms and new leaders joining, I want to acknowledge the remarkable contributions of those departing.

Your guidance has been instrumental in establishing a foundation for our long-term success.

Through difficult times — the COVID-19 pandemic, back-to-back hurricanes and an increasing need — you have shown an unwavering advocacy for the daily challenges and aspirations of our neighbors.

As we enter a new year, I look forward to continuing to foster a community where everyone has the opportunity to thrive.

Nelle S. Miller is the CEO of All Faiths Food Bank in Sarasota.
